In connection with the captioned patent application, I, Markus Galin, worked together with the three originally named inventors, Elsa Lundblad, Lotta Hedkvist and Henrik Sundqvist when the invention initially was made. I also worked with inventors Thomas Pless and Jill Simon, who are submitting separate statements for addition to the invention. All of us contributed to the invention.
2. I moved on to other working tasks while Elsa Lundblad, Lotta Hedkvist and Henrik Sundqvist continued with the further development of the invention and with the work to implement the invention in our products.
3. When the patent application was filed, Thomas Pless, Jill Simon and myself were still working on other projects and were by mistake not included on the
